DARTS (AMSTRAD)

Have you the skill and concentration to play and defeat your opponent at one of the world's greatest indoor games?

Can you overcome the tension and pressure to finish on a double before your challenger? Find out by playing On the Oché.

On the Oché follows the standard competition rules and you can play either 1001, 501, 401, 301, 201, or 101. Firstly though, check the weight of your darts, you may find a lighter weight more accurate. Make sure your aim is true by lining up a horizontal cross-hair and a vertical cross-hair. But beware of those wayward darts, one random throw may lose you the game.
